 - 12 slots drawn from public entries

Objective

- There are two ways to winning a panna match: By being the first player to score 3 goals or by giving a panna (nutmeg). If you give a panna, the game is immediately over regardless of the score.

What is a Panna?

A Panna is the art of playing the ball intentionally between your opponent's legs.

To do a successful panna:

- You must have possession of the ball.
- A panna only counts if it is on purpose. The attacker deliberately needs to have tried to give the panna.
- The panna needs to happen directly from the attacker's feet.
- The side wall cannot be used to give a panna.

- It's not a panna if the ball is poked through after being caught and locked between the opponent's legs.

Duration:

Matches are 5 minutes long.

- If no one scores 3 goals or gives a panna at end of the 5 minutes, the highest score wins. Each goal is one point.
- If the score is tied, there will be two minutes of sudden death overtime. First player to score or give a panna wins.
- If neither opponent score, the game will be decided with a coin toss

Game Start:

- Late arriving players will risk forfeiting their match. A 2 minute grace period will be given.
- The match starts with the ball between both players backs. When the ref blows the whistle both players may turn around to go for the first ball possession.

Scoring:

- Goals can be scored from everywhere within the panna cage. (get confirmation)
- You cannot use the side wall to score.
- After a goal is scored the opponent immediately gets ball possession at his own goal.

Fair Play Rules:

The following is not permitted:

- Dangerous play
- Physical contact such as holding onto your opponent, or clothing.
- Obstruction (use of body or arms to stop your opponent).
- Holding onto any portion of the side walls.

If a foul is made, the player fouled will get the ball and reset at his own goal. The ref will enforce fairness and can disqualify a player for extreme cases such as violence, verbal abuse, or continuous disrespect of officials.

The ref has final say on all calls.
